Coffee is a ritual, not a rush.

Coffee Zen exists for the quiet moment between waking and doing — the pour, the steam, the first warm breath of the day. We pair carefully sourced beans with a calm, grounded way of being.

Everywhere the brand shows up, it should feel unhurried, warm, and intentional — never loud, never wired. Stillness is the product.

BRAND PILLARS

Calm

Space to breathe. Generous margins, soft tones, slow pacing.

Craft

Considered detail. Honest materials, careful sourcing, no shortcuts.

Ritual

A daily practice. Familiar, grounding, worth slowing down for.

IN ONE LINE

Find calm in every cup.

The primary mark combines a hand-textured wordmark with a seated, meditating figure cradling a cup — uniting coffee and zen in a single symbol. Lead with the full lockup. Reverse to cream on dark or sage backgrounds only; never on a busy or low-contrast field.

The Symbol

A meditating figure holding a steaming cup — the brand's emblem. May stand alone as an avatar or favicon.

The Wordmark

A textured, hand-drawn treatment of “Coffee Zen” that signals warmth and craft.

CLEAR SPACE

Keep clear space of at least x on all sides, where x equals the height of the figure's cup. Nothing intrudes.

MINIMUM SIZE

Below these sizes the textured wordmark loses legibility. For very small uses, the standalone symbol is preferred.

DISPLAY · HEADLINES

High-contrast and serene. Used large for headlines and pull-quotes, often in italic. Weights 300–600.

Aa

Hanken Grotesk

TEXT · INTERFACE

Warm, legible humanist sans for body copy, UI and labels. The workhorse. Weights 300–800.

Aa

DETAIL · LABELS

Used sparingly, uppercase and tracked, for tags, captions and technical specs. Adds an editorial edge.

TYPE SCALE

Display / 64·1.05

Find calm in every cup

Heading / 36·1.15

Crafted slowly, served warmly

Subhead / 20·1.4

A daily ritual worth slowing down for

Body / 17·1.7

Body copy is set in Hanken Grotesk at a relaxed measure and generous leading, so reading feels as unhurried as the brand itself.

We speak the way
a good café feels — warm, calm, and
never in a hurry.

---

Grounded

Plain, honest words. We don't oversell or shout.
Confidence, quietly.

---

Warm

Friendly and human. We write to one person, like a barista
who knows your order.

---

Unhurried

Short, breathing sentences.
We leave space. We invite, we don't push.

WE SAY

“Start your day the Zen way.”

“Brewed slow. Sipped slower.”

“A quiet moment, in a cup.”

WE DON'T SAY

~~“Get WIRED with megacaffeine!!!”~~

~~“Buy now — limited time
blowout.”~~

~~“The world's most extreme roast.”~~

Warm light, honest texture, hands at rest.

Photography is soft and natural — morning light, steam, ceramic, raw wood and linen. Earth tones throughout. Favour close, quiet moments: a cup cradled in two hands, a slow pour, beans at rest. Avoid harsh flash, cool blue casts, clutter or stocky “business” energy. Every image should feel like a deep breath.

The identity, carried across the Coffee Zen storefront.
